

International Police Hockey Game to Benefit New York Police and Fire Widows and Orphans

For Immediate Release:

January 8, 2002

East Lansing, Michigan. Officers from the Michigan State Police and the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) will face off in a special hockey game at Munn Arena on the Michigan State University campus, Saturday, January 12, 2002. The charity game will help raise funds for the widows and orphans of police and fire department officers killed on September 11th. The game begins at 7:00 p.m.

General admission is by donation ($5.00 per person suggested, children under 5 years of age are free) tickets can be purchased at the door.

Thirty seven officers are expected to suit up for the game with the proceeds going to the New York City Police Benevolent Association—Widows and Orphans, New York Fire Department—Widows and Orphans UFA, and the New York Port Authority Police World Trade Disaster Survivor's Fund.

Hockey fans unable to attend the game but still wishing to make a donation, or for fans needing additional information call 517/336-6490.

END

Contact:

D/Sgt. Terry Young, Michigan State Police, 517/336-6490